Section A (5 marks)

66. 中国是公认的四大文明古国之一，其有记载的历史和文化可以追溯到 5000 年前。中国的饮食历史、茶传统、诗歌和艺术、医药、戏剧和节日只是中国丰富的文化多样性的诸多方面中的一部分。对于中国这样一个历史悠久的国家来说，不同地区的民族和习俗差异巨大是很自然的。无论走到哪儿，你都会体验到传统、习俗和遗产的独特结合。

Section B (10 marks)

67. Almost every language is rich in vocabulary and idiomatic expressions. For example, Inuit people who live in Alaska and the far north of Canada have many different ways to describe snow. Irish people, on the other hand, have a wide variety of ways to describe a green landscape. Other examples can be found in language relating to food. For instance, the French and Italian languages have many words for talking about wine, while American English has many ways to indicate how a steak should be cooked. This shows that the development of a language is influenced by both environment and culture.

Part VII Error Correction (10 marks)

A knowledge of differences between cultures in an ever-shrinking globalized world are becoming one of the essential skills that modern 73. is “citizens of the world” need to possess in order to work and learn effectively.
At a superficial level this involves know about food or body taboos. 74. knowing For example, some cultures don't eat meat, cows can be sacred, the head must not be touched. But while it is important to know about these things, if this is what your intercultural knowledge stops, 75. where you'll still end up offending people or misunderstood. 76. misunderstanding

More important than superficial behavior is the value system of a culture. The culturally aware individual needs to have not only knowledge of publicly visible behaviors and stated beliefs, but also an awareness of the underlain value system of cultures that shape those 77. underlying behaviors and stated beliefs.

Of course, these belief systems can ^ very different from one's 78. be own, and it's not very easy to label other people's behaviors and beliefs 79. not as strange. It is more difficult to accept that one's own ways of behaving, which seem perfect normal, can be seen as strange and even rude in 80. perfectly another culture. But if one tries to observe one's own culture objectively 81. unless and have a understanding of why other cultures do things differently, 82. an it is inevitable that cultural mistakes will be made.
