【录音原文】

M: Hello Feifei.

F: Hello Rob.

M: Today we're talking about quite a controversial subject: the use of experimental drugs to treat disease.

F: And experimental drugs are a very hot topic with the recent cases of Ebola in West Africa.

M: Ebola is caused by a virus for which there is no cure yet, and the mortality rate is high.

F: Hundreds of people have been infected in Guinea, Liberia and Sierra Leone and over half have died.

M: So—the World Health Organization decided to allow the use of experimental drugs on people with the virus. The virus Ebola got its name after a river in the northern part of the Democratic Republic of Congo. But when was it discovered?

F: Well, I'm not really sure.

M: Well, we'll have the answer at the end of the programme. The World Health Organization (the WHO) announced they would allow the use of these drugs on humans, but... only under certain conditions.

F: I wonder what would happen if it didn't work or if the patient had a bad reaction—might they sue the doctor?

M: That's a very interesting point. The Health Minister of Liberia, Walter Gwenigale, has already said that people won't be allowed to sue if the drug doesn't work or if it makes them worse.

F: He's very direct. Neither the government nor the doctors are liable.

M: And that's why if you are infected with the virus you have to sign a waiver.

F: A waiver. This is a formal document in which the person says they've given up a right or claim—in this case, the right to take others to court.

M: Yes. That's right.

F: So, people who are infected with Ebola can talk to a doctor, sign this document, this waiver, and get the medicine.

M: Well, not exactly—because not everyone gets it. Now, let's get back to our quiz. I asked you when the Ebola virus was discovered. It was discovered in 1976. Interestingly we don't know which animal carries the Ebola virus, although bats have long been suspected and this makes prevention and controlling Ebola quite difficult.

【录音原文】

I’m Mark. Most students in America take part-time jobs to help to pay for their studies. I didn’t plan to do this because I don’t enjoy working for other people. I started my own company, CyberEdit, when I was 19. Most students have to write essays, and I aimed to provide computer editing services for them. During one summer vacation, I worked for an Internet company and in the evening, I spent another four hours working on my website. After that summer, my company grew by about 400%, earning me $40,000 in the first year.

It’s not easy to develop a business. If you hope to be financially independent, you must do something while you are young and you can work long hours. For a long time, I was editing between five and ten documents a night. I spent fifty hours a week doing this. It was hard. Then I hired my first four employees.

The next year, I turned down a summer job at a big New York investment bank and spent the vacation expanding CyberEdit. In December, Wired magazine contacted me and asked me to write an article about my life. After the article appeared in March, interested investors began emailing me. In June, one of the people who had emailed me decided to invest a large sum of money in the company. So... the Wired article brought me over a million dollars in funding!

More than anything else, good publicity helps a new business attract investors and customers. A successful teenage entrepreneur is an interesting story, so getting publicity and funding for the business was easier because of my age. Investors came to me, not because I was making money and employing fifty people from college, but because they read about it in Wired magazine, and saw it on ABC World News Tonight.

My advice to young people who consider starting a company is always the same: Do it now! Don't delay starting it until you've finished school or had some "real-world experience".

According to experts, people (47) _____ (catch) up in disasters tend to fall into three categories. About 10% to 15% remain calm and act quickly and efficiently. Another 15% completely panic, crying and screaming. But the vast (48) maj _____ of people do very little. They are stunned and confused.

Why is this? Research suggests that (49) _____ great stress our minds take much longer to process information. So, in a crisis many people “freeze”. It also seems that a person’s personality is not a good guide to how they might react. Most people go their entire lives (50) _____ (with) a disaster. So when something bad happens they are so shocked that they just think, “This can’t possibly be happening to me,” instead of taking action.

On March 27th, 1977, a Pan Am 747, (51) _____ was waiting to take off from Tenerife airport, collided with a Dutch KLM 747 that was taking off in the fog. Everyone on the KLM plane was killed but 62 passengers on the Pan Am plane survived. Many more would survive if they had got off the plane (52) imm _____.

One of the (53) _____ (survive) was 65-year-old Paul Heck. He led his wife towards the exits and they got out just before the plane caught fire. Why Paul and not others? While he was waiting for the plane to take off, he studied the plane’s safety diagram. He looked for the (54) _____ (near) exit and pointed it to his wife. When the plane collided, Heck’s brain had the data it needed. So next time you fly or stay in a hotel or find yourself in any new environment, take a few seconds to find out where the (55) eme _____ exit is. It may just save your life.

46. unthinkable

(前一句提到, 我们总是认为灾难不会发生在我们身上, 但灾难可以发生在任何时候任何地点。下一句应该是问当没有想到的事情发生时, 应该如何面对? the+adj.表示一类人或整体。the unthinkable 指不可想象的事情。)

47. caught

(此句中的主谓宾齐全, 那么 people 后面的成分应该是 people 的修饰语, be caught up in 指的是“被卷入, 牵涉”。此句句意是, 据专家介绍, 卷入灾难的人往往分为三类。)

48. majority

(vast majority of 指的是“绝大多数的”。此句句意是绝大多数人做的却非常有限。)

49. under

(分析句子结构可知, that 引导的从句后面主谓宾齐全, 因而推测所填内容在句中是作状语, 应填入一个介词。under great stress 意为“在强大的精神压力下”。本句句意是, 研究显示, 在强大的精神压力下, 我们的大脑需要更长的时间来处理信息。)

50. without

(结合上下文可知, 此句意在表达大部分人的整个生命历程都没有遭遇灾难, 因此填 without。)

51. which

(通过分析句子成分可知, 此处应该填入一个关系代词引导后面的定语从句, 先行词是 a Pan Am 747, 且关系代词在句中作主语, 因此填 which。)

52. immediately

(此句意在表达, 如果大多数人能够立即从飞机上下来, 他们也能从此次事故中幸存下来, 所以填副词 immediately。)

53. survivors

(根据语意可知, 此处应该填入一个指人的名词, survivor 意为“幸存者”, 根据前面的 one of 可知, 此处填复数形式, 因此填 survivors。)

54. nearest

(根据语意逻辑可知, 此句意在表达“他找到了最近的出口, 并把它指给了他的妻子”, 因此此处填 nearest。)

55. emergency

(根据语意逻辑可知, 此处意在表达“花几分钟找一下紧急出口”, 因此填 emergency。)

Part IV Reading Comprehension (40marks)

Read the following passages. Each passage is followed by several questions. Respond to the questions using information from the passage. Remember to write the answers on the answer sheet.

Section A (10marks)

Questions 56—60 are based on the following passage.

Did Climber Have to Cut Off Arm to Save Life?

On Sunday the 27th April 2003, 27-year-old Aron Ralston, an experienced mountaineer, set off on a 13-mile hike through the Bluejohn Canyon in Utah. He expected the hike would take him about 12 hours. On his way, while climbing through a narrow section of the canyon, a 360-kg boulder (岩石) fell and trapped his arm. He was unable to move.

Ralston lay trapped in the canyon for five days. His water ran out after four days. A search party that went looking for him found no sign of him. On Thursday, he used a pocket knife to amputate (截肢) his arm below the elbow. He then walked out of the canyon and was taken to hospital.

Search and rescue veteran Rex Tanner was asked what Ralston did right and wrong.

How do you think Ralston managed to survive?

Rex: I think the most important thing is that he kept his head. In a dangerous situation, you need a stable frame of mind.

What could Ralston have done to avoid the situation?

Rex: Ralston had broken the most important rule of climbing. He had not told anyone where he was going. There are a lot of things he should have done that he didn't do. For example, he could have asked someone to do the hike with him. He could have taken a cell phone with him. He shouldn't have set out without doing at least one of these things. It's really not that difficult to do, and it doesn't take away from the wilderness experience.

What basic tips would you suggest to help people survive in the wild?

Rex: Having enough water is number one. Being able to start a fire is number two. The proper clothing is important. Also, you have to realize when things are getting difficult. Before you climb down into a canyon, it's important that you figure out how you're going to get out.

Questions 56—60

Decide the following statements are true (T) or false (F) according to the passage.

56. As an experienced mountaineer, Ralston went on hiking through the Bluejohn Canyon in Utah by himself.

57. Before Ralston was found by the search party he had been trapped in the canyon for four days.

58. If Ralston had told someone where he was going, he would not have been trapped so long.

59. What made Ralston survive was his keeping calm.

60. Rex indicates that for people who do the hike in the wild, taking proper clothing is the most important.

【答案与解析】

56. T 文中 Rex Tanner 回答第二个问题时提到“He had not told anyone where he was going (他没有告诉任何人他去哪儿)”, 由此可知 Ralston 是独自进入峡谷的。

57. F 文中第二段提到“Ralston lay trapped in the canyon for five days”, 由此可知在搜索队伍找到他的时候, 他已经被困五天了, 而不是四天。

58. T 文中第二段提到“A search party that went looking for him found no sign of him.”, 由此可知搜索队伍找不到他的任何痕迹, 而且后文提到他没有告诉任何人他去了哪里, 也没有带电话, 所以推测如果他告诉别人他在哪里, 他就不会被困那么久。

59. T 文中 Rex 提到“I think the most important thing is that he kept his head. In a dangerous situation, you need a stable frame of mind.”, 也就是说在危险的困境中要保持清晰的头脑。Ralston 之所以能够幸存下来是因为他保持冷静。

60. F 文中 Rex 提到穿合适的衣服很重要, 但是“Having enough water is number one.”, 因此带足够多的水是最重要的。

Section B (10marks)

Questions 61—65 are based on the following passage.

One Small Word, One Big Difference in Meaning

As Neil Armstrong became the first man to walk on the Moon, a global audience of 500 million people were watching and listening. “That’s one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind,” they heard him say as he dropped from the ladder of his spacecraft to make the first human footprint on the lunar surface. It was the perfect quote for such a momentous occasion. But from the moment he said it, people have argued about whether the NASA astronaut got his lines wrong.

(61)_____ In the tense six hours and forty minutes between landing on the Moon and stepping out of the capsule, Armstrong wrote what he knew would become some of the most memorable words in history.

(62)_____ It would have been a more meaningful and grammatically correct sentence. Without the missing “a”, the intended meaning of the sentence is lost. In effect, the line means, “That’s one small step for mankind (or humanity), one giant leap for mankind.”

(63)_____ Until his death Armstrong himself had never been sure if he actually said what he wrote. In his biography First Man he told the author James Hansen, “I must admit that it doesn’t sound like the word “a” is there. On the other hand, certainly the “a” was intended, because that’s the only way it makes sense.”

(64)_____ Using hi-tech sound analysis techniques, Peter Shann Ford, an Australian computer expert has discovered that the “a” was spoken by Armstrong, but he said it so quickly that it was inaudible on the recording which was broadcast to the world.

(65)_____ James Hansen said, “Neil is a modest guy, but I think it means a lot to him to know that he didn’t make a mistake.”

Questions 61—65

Complete the following sentences. There are two extra sentences that you do not need to use.

- A. But now, after almost five decades, the spaceman has been vindicated.
- B. What was the life like on the Moon?
- C. Armstrong has always insisted that he wrote “one small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind.”
- D. Mr. Ford could not do anything about it.
- E. Mr. Ford’s findings have been presented to relieve Mr. Armstrong.
- F. Did Armstrong really say the sentence incorrectly?
- G. Armstrong landed the Apollo 11 spacecraft on the Moon on 20th July 1969.

【答案与解析】

61. G 后文描述的是阿姆斯特丹登月及写下几个字，因此此处所填内容应与阿姆斯特丹登月有关，将 G 项内容代入，符合语境，因此 G 为正确选项。

62. C 后面一句说，那是一个意义深远且没有语法错误的句子，可以推测此处内容应该与阿姆斯特丹写下的句子有关。该段最后一句提到“In effect, the line means, ‘That’s one small step for mankind (or humanity), one giant leap for mankind.’（事实上，那些话意味着‘人类的一小步，人类的一大步’）”，C 项语义与此类似，将其代入，符合语境，因此 C 为正确选项。

63. F 此段内容都是围绕阿姆斯特丹写下的话是否正确这一问题展开的，因此应该与阿姆斯特丹的话有关，将 F 项代入符合语境，因此 F 为正确选项。

64. A 此段论述的是 Peter Shann Ford 证实了阿姆斯特丹的话中有“a”这个单词，因此宇航员的话被证实了，A 项符合此意，故 A 为正确答案。

65. E James Hansen 说，尼尔是个谦虚的人，如果他知道他没有说错，那将对他意义重大。由此可知，Mr. Ford 的研究能使阿姆斯特丹放心，所以 E 为正确选项。

Section C (10 marks)

Questions 66—70 are based on the following passage.

Silly Question, Brilliant Answers

Several years ago, Masaru Ibuka, the chairman of Sony, was at a company planning meeting. Suddenly he had a brilliant idea. He stopped the meeting and asked everyone present what would happen if Sony removed the recording function and speaker and sold headphones with a tape player instead. Almost everyone thought he was crazy. Still, Ibuka kept thinking about his idea and worked at refining it. The result, of course, turned out to be the wildly successful Sony Walkman.

Good ideas often start with a really silly question. Bill Bowerman was making breakfast one day. As he stood there making waffles (华夫饼干) for his son, he wondered what would happen if he poured rubber into his waffle iron. Later, he tried it and the result looked something like the bottom of most sports shoes we see today. Still, when he took this idea to several existing shoe companies, he was literally laughed at. In fact, every single company turned him down. Though rather discouraged, Bowerman persevered and went on to form his own company, making NIKE athletic shoes.

Sometimes good ideas grow out of frustration. When Fred Smith was a student at Yale University, he had some paperwork that he needed to have delivered across the country the next day. Fred was amazed to find out that overnight delivery was impossible. He sat for a long while wondering why. Why couldn't there be a reliable overnight mail delivery service? He decided to design one. Fred did that and turned his design into a class project. His business professor gave him only a "C" for his efforts. However, Fred was not through. He refined the ideas in that class project and eventually turned them into one of the first and most successful overnight mail services in the world—FedEx.

We know today, of course, that each of these ideas led to an incredibly successful product or service that has changed the way many of us live. The best questions are usually open-ended and are often silly. Children aren't afraid to ask such questions, but adults frequently are. Think how different the world might be if people never asked "silly" questions!

Question 66—70

Answer the following questions according to the passage.

66. What was Ibuka doing when he thought of the brilliant idea?

67. How did Sony Walkman come into being?

68. How many examples are used to explain the theme of the passage? What are they?

69. Why did Fred think of designing overnight delivery?

70. What is the main idea of the passage?

【答案与解析】

66. He was having a company planning meeting.

(文章第一段开头提到“Masaru Ibuka, the chairman of Sony, was at a company planning meeting”, 由此可知他想到不错的点子的时候, 他正在参加公司组织的聚会。)

67. The company's chairman Ibuka suggested removing the recording function and speaker and sold headphone with a tape player.

(文中第一段提到 Ibuka 在公司的聚会上提出了丢弃录音功能, 创造带有磁带的耳机的想法。正是因为这一想法才有了索尼随身听。)

68. Three. They are Sony Walkman, NIKE athletic shoes and FedEx overnight delivery.

(文章的前三段共讲述了三个好点子铸造成功的故事, 因此文章一共讲述了三个故事, 分别是索尼的随身听, 耐克的运动鞋和联邦快递的隔夜交货。)

69. Because he wanted some paperwork to be delivered across the country the next day.

(文中第三段提到“When Fred Smith was a student at Yale University, he had some paperwork that he needed to have delivered across the country the next day.”, 由此可知 Fred 之所以有创设隔夜快递的想法是因为他希望第二天能将他的文书邮寄到目的地。)

70. Silly questions often lead to great inventions.

(整篇文章谈论的都是很傻的问题最终导致了伟大发明的产生, 因此文章的主题是 Silly questions often lead to great inventions。)

Section D (10 marks)

Questions 71—75 are based on the following passage.

Get Stressed, Stay Young

For decades doctors have warned us about the dangers of stress and have given us advice about how to cut down our stress levels. Everyone agrees that long-term stress, for example, having to look after someone who has a chronic illness, or stressful situations where there is nothing we can do, or being stuck in a traffic jam, is bad for our health and should be avoided whenever possible. However, some medical experts now believe that certain kinds of stress may actually be good for us.

Dr. Marios Kyriazis, an anti-aging expert, claims that what he calls “good stress” is beneficial to our health and may, in fact, help us stay young and attractive and even live longer. Dr Kyriazis says that “good stress” can strengthen our natural defenses which protect us from illnesses common among older people, such as Alzheimer’s, arthritis (关节炎), and heart problems. He believes that “good stress” can increase the production of the proteins that help to repair the body’s cells, including brain cells.

According to Dr. Kyriazis, running for a bus and having to work to a deadline are examples of “good stress”, which are situations with short-term, low or moderate stress. The stress usually makes us react quickly and efficiently, and gives us a sense of achievement—we did it! However, in both these situations, the stress damages the cells in our body or brain and they start to break down. But then the cells’ own repair mechanism “switches on” and it produces proteins which repair the damaged cells and remove harmful chemicals that can gradually cause disease. In fact, the body’s response is greater than is needed to repair the damage, so it actually makes the cells stronger than they were before.

“As the body gets older, this self-repair mechanism of the cells starts to slow down,” says Dr. Kyriazis. “The best way to keep the process working efficiently is to ‘exercise’ it, in the same way you would exercise your muscles to keep them strong. This means having a certain amount of stress in our lives.”

Other stressful activities that Dr. Kyriazis recommends as being good stress include redecorating a room in your house over a weekend, packing your suitcase in a hurry to reach the airport on time, shopping for a dinner party during your lunch break or programming your DVD player by following the instruction manual.

Question 71—75

Complete the summary with a maximum of three words from the passage

In the past, stress was considered to be harmful to our health. Therefore, we always (71) _____ the stress levels when possible. But recently medical experts claim that some “good stress” can be beneficial to our health and help us stay young and attractive. That is because the self-repair mechanism of this kind of stress can (72) _____

_____, and produce proteins that repair the damaged cells and remove (73) _____. To prevent the cells from (74) _____, we must have some stress in our daily life. Such stress can (75) _____ our self-repair mechanism.

【答案与解析】

71. cut down

(文中第一段提到“For decades doctors have warned us about the dangers of stress and have given us advice about how to cut down our stress levels”, 由此可知, 过去人们认为压力是有害的, 所以要尽量减压。cut down 意为“削减, 减少”。)

72. switch on

(文中第三段提到“But then the cells’ own repair mechanism ‘switches on’ and it produces proteins which repair the damaged cells and remove harmful chemicals that can gradually cause disease”, 由此可知, 这种压力的自我修复机制能够开启并产生蛋白质, 因此填 switch on。)

73. harmful chemicals

(文中第三段提到“it produces proteins which repair the damaged cells and remove harmful chemicals that can gradually cause disease”, 因此此处填 harmful chemicals。)

74. slowing down

(文中第四段 Kyriazis 提到, 当身体趋于衰老, 细胞的自我修复机制开始下降, 让机制有效运作的方式就是“锻炼”它。由此可知, 我们的日常生活需要压力是为了防止细胞自我修复机制老化。prevent from doing sth. 要用动词的 ing 形式, 因此此处填 slowing down。)

75. exercise

(文中第四段 Kyriazis 提到“The best way to keep the process working efficiently is to ‘exercise’ it, in the same way you would exercise your muscles to keep them strong. This means having a certain amount of stress in our lives”, 而且文中要表达的意思也是压力能够锻炼我们的自我修复机制, 因此此处填 exercise。)

Part V Translation (15 marks)

Section A (5 marks)

Translate the following sentences into Chinese. Remember to write the answers on the answer sheet.

76.

Chinese characters play a key role in passing on Chinese language and culture. You may not have any special feeling just by looking at them. But by writing you get closer to them and sense their cultural meanings. It is an unavoidable fact that writing ability has declined recently with the advent of keyboard and voice recognition. There are fewer opportunities for handwriting as it is more convenient and faster to type on keyboards. Overreliance on electronic input methods is eroding people’s memory for characters.

【参考译文】

在传递中国语言文化上, 汉字起着关键性作用。只是看着它们, 你可能并不会有什么特别的感觉。但是在书写时, 你会感觉更靠近它们, 从而感受到它们的文化内涵。随着键盘和语音识别的出现, 人们的书写能力近来有所下降, 这是一个不可避免的事实。因为在键盘上打字更方便快捷, 所以现在用手写字的机会更少了。对电子输入的过度依赖正在侵蚀人们对汉字的记忆。

【解析】

①句式结构

本篇翻译中的难点主要是对两个英语长句的翻译。第一个英语长句是“It is an unavoidable fact that writing ability has declined recently with the advent of keyboard and voice recognition.”这一句包含两层语意: 一是随着键盘和语音识别的出现, 人们的书写能力近来有所下降; 二是对这一现象的评价, 即这是不可避免的事实。在翻译时, 打乱了原文的结构, 将其拆分成三个小部分, 将评论性语言置后。第二个英语长句是“There are fewer opportunities for handwriting as it is more convenient and faster to type on keyboards.”这一长

句由一个主句和一个 as 引导的原因状语从句组成，在翻译时顺从汉语先因后果的特点，将原因状语从句置前。

②重点词汇

play a key role in 起关键作用

cultural meaning 文化内涵

with the advent of 随着……的到来

erode vt. 侵蚀、腐蚀

Section B (10 marks)

Translate the following sentences into English, using the hints given in brackets. Remember to write the answer on the answer sheet.

77. 这是一本自助手册，用来帮助人们保持健康，无需经常看医生。（without）

【答案】This is a self-help manual, which can help people stay healthy without the need to see doctors often.

【解析】在对此句进行翻译时，可运用定语从句丰富句子的结构。“自助手册”译为“self-help manual”。“看医生”译为“see doctors”或“see a doctor”。

78. 道路上安装了越来越多的测速摄像头，以减少严重事故的数量。（install）

【答案】In order to reduce the number of traffic accidents, more and more speed cameras have been installed on roads.

【解析】“以……”表目的，可用“为了……”来表达，即“in order to...”。

79. 电子产品的出现，特别是电视和电脑，对孩子们产生了巨大的影响。（have an impact on）

【答案】The emergence of electronic products, especially TV and computers, has had a great impact on children.

【解析】“……的出现”可以用“the emergence/appearance of”来表达；“特别是”可以用“especially/particularly”来表达。

80. 电视的背景噪音使那个孩子不能集中精力做作业。（concentrate）

【解析】concentrate on 意为“集中精力做某事”；“使……不能做……”可译为“prevent/keep sb. from doing sth.”或“make sb. impossible to do sth.”。

81. 学生们不仅努力学习，还积极参加各种社会活动。（倒装结构）

【答案】Not only do the students study hard, they also take an active part in various social activities.

【解析】“不仅……而且……”可用“not only...but also...”来表达。

Part VI Error Correction(10 marks)

Proofread the passage as required. Each indicated line contains a maximum of one error. Correct the passage in the following way: for a right line, put the sign “√” in the corresponding blank; for a wrong word, underline the wrong word and write the correct one in the blank; for a missing word, mark the position of the missing word with the sign “^” and write the word you believe to be missing in the blank; for an unnecessary word, cross the unnecessary word with the sign “|” and put the word with the sign in the blank. Write the answers on the answer sheet.

Children are inventing a new lexicon for electronic communication with a range of jargon and symbols that adults find hard to understand. Although educators and politicians were once most concerned about concise pronunciation, it seems that “e-mail English” poses a greater threat to the language. For example, the symbol :-(represents a sad face and is widely used to signifying sympathy, disappointment or bad news. The symbols have evolved to keep up the cost of mobile phone text messages and e-mailing, and speed up the response time. Teachers say that the new shorthand style associating with e-mails is making their job of improving literacy skills even hard. Robin Lauffer, who conducted the research, said that symbols used in text messages represented new ways of expressing emotions. “We are witnessing a communications revolution which children have adapted very quickly. Our language is changing in the front of our eyes.” Other experts said that dropping grammar and replacing sentence with abbreviations will damage the language. Ms Lauffer added: “Kids have always had some coded language of their own what separated them from grown-ups, but the Internet and mobile phones have given them the ability to do this much more. Writing a longhand letter is going to have to be something that is taught at school and, while they will know how to do this, the question is, will they want to?”

82. greater→great

(此句句意是电子邮件给语言带来了很大威胁。文中并没有提到别的事物给语言带来了威胁，因此没有可对比的对象，不能用比较级，应该改为形容词 great。)

83. signifying→signify

(be used to 意为“被用来干什么”，to 后面用动词原形，因此将 signifying 改为 signify。)

84. up→down

(此句句意是，此类符号已经演化为降低手机成本，提高反应速度。keep up 意为“保持；继续；不落”，keep down 意为“控制；缩减”，因此将 up 改为 down。)

85. associating→associated

(此句句意是，电子邮件带来的新的速记风格使提高他们的读写能力变得更难。“associating with e-mails”是作“shorthand style”的后置定语，“be associated with”意为“和……联系在一起；与……有关”。因此将 associating 改为 associated。)

86. hard→harder

(此处意欲表达“使提高读写能力变得更难”，因此要用 hard 的比较级 harder。)

87. which 前加 to

(此句句意是，我们正经历一场通信革命，孩子们能很快适应这场革命。“适应……”用“adapt to”来表达。因此 which 前面要加 to。)

88. 去掉 the

(“in front of”是指在一个物体外面的前面，“in the front of”是指在一个物体内部的前面。)

89. sentence→sentences

(此处表达的是复数的概念。grammar 是不可数名词，sentence 是可数名词，因此应将 sentence 改为 sentences。)

90. what→which/that

(分析句子结构可知, some coded language of their own 后面是一个对其起修饰作用的定语从句, 且 some coded language of their own 是先行词, 关系代词在句中做主语, what 不能作关系代词, 因此要将其改为 which 或 that。)

Part VII IQ Test(5 marks)

There are five IQ Test questions in this part. Write the answers on the answer sheet.

92. Which code matches the shape or pattern?

A. ZW

B. YW

C. XV

D. ZV

【答案】D

【解析】通过观察图形可知, YV 和 XV 的图形颜色相同, 形状不同, 从而得出 V 代表黑色, Y 代表图形“+”, X 代表图形“┐”, 同理可知, Z 代表图形“├”, U 代表颜色浅色, W 代表颜色白色。因此 D 为正确选项。

93. I meant to tell her that she was fun, not fat; it was just a slip of the tongue! What's the Chinese meaning of “a slip of the tongue” in the sentence above?

【答案】口误

【解析】此句句意是, 我本来是想告诉她, 她很有趣, 而不是胖, 那只是个口误! “a slip of the tongue”意为“口误, 失言”。

94. Which word does not logically belong to the list below?

glance, anchor, charge, casino, arcade

【答案】casino

【解析】观察前三个单词可知后一单词的前两个字母是前面单词的中间两个字母, 因此从逻辑上来说, casino 这个单词是不对的。

95. Replace the “dots” with a word to make five new words.

【答案】out/OUT

【解析】outdoor 意为“户外的, 露天的”; outdistance 意为“超越, 大大超过; 把……抛在后面”; outflow 意为“流出”; “outfox”意为“以计取胜; 以机智胜过”。

96. What letter should replace the question mark?

【答案】P

【解析】字母 D 前面有 3 个字母，后面有 22 个字母，字母 M 前面有 12 个字母，后面有 13 个字母。因此空格处填的字母前面有 15 个字母，空格后有 10 个字母，即字母 P。

People say that the teenage years are the happiest time of a person's life; others think that being a teenager means endless stress and problems.

What are your views on this joy and pain of growing up? Please write an essay of at least 120 words on the answer sheet.

【参考范文】

Teenage years are the happiest time of life

As to the question which period is the happiest on the life journey, different people have different opinions. Some may hold that they feel happiest when they are teenagers. However, others prefer the life after they have grown up. In my opinion, teenage years are the happiest time of life.

For one thing, the teenage years are vibrant and alive with hope and possibility. During this time, with lofty aspirations in your young heart, you must have designed many great blueprints for your bright future. It's time for you to realize that there are some things in life worthwhile to fight for such as dream or love.

For another thing, teenage years won't be influenced by a lot of boring things concerning money, house, car, children and some other things. Under the protection of school and parents, most teenagers don't need to experience the ups and downs of life.

All in all, the teenage years are the happiest time in life and we should enjoy it.
